DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-30, 52-55, 59-65, and 67-70, drawn to a method of treating a blood vessel, classified in class 604, subclass 500.
- II. Claims 31-37, and 56, drawn to an evacuation sheath assembly, classified in class 604, subclass 93.01.
- III. Claims 38-51, 57, and 66, drawn to a combination for isolating fluid communication between a blood vessel and a catheter, classified in class 604, subclass 164.01.
- IV. Claim 58, drawn to an infusion catheter assembly, classified in class 604, subclass 131.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and (II, III, IV) are related as process and apparatus for its practice.

The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case using a catheter instead of an evacuation sheath can perform the method.

Inventions III and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not need a dual lumen evacuation sheath. The subcombination has separate utility such as balloon angioplasty.

Inventions III and IV are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not an infusion catheter with a guidewire lumen. The subcombination has separate utility such as being able to deliver treating material inside the body.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
